

Aboriginal Counsellor Part-time

Calgary Counselling Centre is a leading research and knowledge based counselling facility in Canada. Through our unique learning-centered approach, core programs are delivered to individuals, families, couples and groups in our community. Having experienced significant growth, we are seeking experienced clinical therapists to bring additional experience and creativity to our programs.

Candidates must be MSB (Medical Services Branch) qualified.

If you have a passion for working with the Aboriginal community, you will be providing short and long term counselling, and support/referral services. The counsellor is responsible for developing and maintaining networks in the Aboriginal community and staying current with the community's Aboriginal resources. We can provide our successful candidate you with an environment that will both challenge and support your personal and professional growth. We are focused on individual, couple and family counseling, have a strong family violence and addictions emphasis and work with a variety of eating disorder, depression and sexual abuse clients.

Candidates must hold a Master's Degree and be registered with their College. Social Workers must be a member of the Clinical Registry. Preference will be given to individuals with at least 5 years clinical experience and proven aboriginal experience. This can be a permanent part-time or contract position.

If you are seeking a modern, dynamic, supportive atmosphere and a workplace where excellence is valued, please send your resume to the address listed below no later than September 30, 2011 to:
